Affinity sales build recognition for your business. If it has your business name on it and your customer likes it they will want more and absolutely love you for it.

One of the least expensive ways to build the connection to your restaurant is to select private branding. Simply, put your brand on the label. Windy Hill Winery distributes excellent wines produced from grapes grown in Washington County, Texas. The wine balances the need for an excellent robust wine and the reality of business economics. We have eight different types of wine from dry to sweet and a port wine that can be branded using your unique logo and business name.

We have a private label program that simplifies the whole process. Imagine serving your customers or your friends your very own house wine with your company or family crest label. Here at Windy Hill Winery we would help you design your label and get (State) approval so you could serve and sell your very own house wine. We would bottle the wine for you at our facilities and deliver the wine to you.

Perhaps we can take a moment or two to talk about what Windy Hill Winery has to offer. Our business is built on long term relationships with customers by providing quality wine and service.
